

REACH Network

(Reporters for Early-Age Children in Humanitarian crises)

2025 CALL FOR STORIES PITCH

Are you a journalist passionate about children's rights in humanitarian crises? 🌍

Do you reside in one of the REACH Network focus countries? 📖

Have you published impactful stories advocating for children's rights in reputable media outlets?

Are you eager to write a story that calls for action to support children in neglected humanitarian crises? If so, we invite you to join us in making early childhood development in crisis settings a global priority by submitting your story pitch!

💡 Why Apply?

- Funding Support: Access up to $500 Advocacy Stories Fund (ASF) for stories on early childhood development in crisis settings.
- Professional Development: Participate in specialized webinars, training, and events.
- Global Collaboration: Opportunity to join the REACH Network and connect with like-minded journalists worldwide.
- Exclusive Resources: Gain access to early childhood development research and resources.

REACH is a concept of the Moving Minds Alliance. The REACH Network is a global movement of reporters dedicated to improving care and support for young children and their caregivers in emergencies, displacement, and crises through their reporting. REACH focuses on:

- Investigating and reporting on early childhood development in emergencies.
- Advancing evidence-based interventions and best practices in early childhood care during emergencies.
- Advocating for increased attention, resources, and sustainable Early Childhood Development (ECD) programs in humanitarian crisis response efforts.
